The Stephens brothers' stock purchases in the railroad gave rise to rumors earlier this year that headquarters of the railroad might be moved from St. Louis to Little Rock.

Having School Is Big Issue, Tucker Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Little School Board President Everel Tucker Jr. said today that more Little Rock people are concluding that their choice "is not between integration and segtrying for the Republican prest- regation but between some degree dential nomination in 1960 on the of desegregation and no public questions involving politics and Gov. Orval E. Faubus. Faubus later said he had seen the telecast and thought that "Mr.

Tucker handled himself very well.' Commenting on a statement of Tucker contrasting comparatively peaceful integration to disturbances two years ago. Faubus said "They overlook one important fact — the people voted on the matter. I didn't ask for complete authority. I only asked for a law which would give the people a change to vote."

Houseboats Can't Be Made Into Homes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)-You can anchor your houseboat on Arkan-sas' federal lakes-but don't try to set up permanent housekeeping A new regulation from the Army Corps of Engineers provides that houseboats and similar craft may Le placed on the reservoirs, but may not be permanently moored for human habitation.

In other words, a spokesman said, houseboats are okay for weekend fishing trips. But they're not to be used for fulltime living, The regulations concern Blue Mountain near Plainview, Bull Bull Shoals and Norfork near Mountain Home, Clearwater near Piedment, Mo., Nimrod n.c. a r Booneville, Table Rock near Branson and the still-incomplete reservoirs at Dardanelle near Dardanelle and Greers Ferry n e a r Heber Springs. All are under the Little Rock district engineer, The regulations include provi-sions for sanitary facilities and other factors governing houseboat operation. Houseboats may be ordered off the lakes at the discretion of the district engineer when publie health and safety require.

Shish Kebab For A Crowd

Shish kebab, traditional cubed lamb and crisp vegetables broifed on skewers, is a perfect choice to serve a crowd. It originated centuries ago in the Near East when Armenian shepherds impaled their food on sticks and cooked it over open fires. Americans are finding it fun to prepare on their barbecue grills.

A small amount of heer in this marinade adds flavor and helps tenderize the meat. Fluffy rice, a green salad and goblets of cold. sparkling beer are good accompaniments to shish kebab. Shish Kebah

I leg of lamb (5 to 7 pounds), baned 1 pecled, minued clove garlie 16 cup salad or olive oil 1/2 cup beer or ale

I tenspoon crushed oregane, 1 teaspoon salt 6 to 8 green peppers 16 to 20 small white onions

Have meatman remove bone from leg of lamb. Cut boned lamb into 2-inch chunks, removing gristle and most of fat. Combine garlic, salad or clive oil, beer or ale, pepper, oregano, thyme and salt. Pour marinade over lamb chunks in shallow pan and let stand in refrigerator at least I hour or overnight. Cut green pepper into 2-inch pieces. Cut peeled onions into halves. When ready to cook, alternate marinated lamb chunks, green pepper pieces and halved onions on 8 to 10 long metal skewers. Brush vegetables with coals until tender, about 15 minutes, turning skewers to brown food evenly. To serve, push off onto individual plates.

Yield: 8 to 10 servings.
